

SLEEP LIKE A BABY

A one minute play by Jake Lewis

JAN and CHRIS are sitting in the living room, reading a magazine or some small activity. Through this whole conversation, they do not look up from whatever they're doing, and they sound completely pleasant to each other, even cheery, but with a passive-aggressive tone.

JAN: Chris, darling?

CHRIS: Yes, my Janny Banany?

JAN: I thought I should tell you, I almost killed you last night.

CHRIS: Oh yeah?

JAN: Mmm-hmm.

CHRIS: Huh. (Beat.) Was it the snoring again?

JAN: How did you ever guess?

CHRIS: Well, thanks for not going through with it.

JAN: You're welcome.

CHRIS: Well, I slept like a baby!

JAN: So glad to hear it!

CHRIS: I take it your night was less restful.

JAN: Oh, just a tad.

CHRIS: Well, I'm going to go take a nap. Love you! (Exits.)

JAN grabs a pillow and heads toward bedroom after CHRIS.
